GAMBLING SPECTATORS

Eleven Chinese Found Guilty—Riot Case On Trial.

For having been "present where a certain game known as sup chah was being played and carried on, at which said game money, or something of value, was lost or won," Ah Quan, Ah San, Ah Choon, Ah Lin, Ah Tai, Ah Mo, Ah Chew, Wong Ping, Ah Hin, Quai Mai and Ah Lee were found guilty before Judge Gear yesterday.

Deputy Attorney General Prosser appeared for the Territory, Lyle A. Dickey for the defendants.

The following jury were only out a few moments when they arrived at their verdict: F. E. Blake, J. A. M. Johnson, J. F. Soper, W. C. Wilder, J. Andrade, F. J. Dutra, J. H. Craig, C. J. Ludwigsen, W. M. Campbell, Chas. Hummel, E. J. Stone and H. P. Kaohi.

TO ARREST JUDGMENT.

Mr. Dickey presented a motion in arrest of judgment. Besides setting out that the indictment was faulty the motion held that the law was unconstitutional, in that it made a person criminally responsible for merely being present where gambling was going on. Under this law, Mr. Dickey argued, a person happening to be in a hotel corridor when a game was being played for money in an adjoining room within his view would be liable to arrest and conviction for violating the law.

The court denied the motion and counsel noted exceptions. Then the court asked the defendants if they had anything to say why they should not be sentenced.

PLEAS FOR LENIENCY.

The first man spoken to said he wanted to be tried by the jury. He did not appear to know what had been doing all day.

Another begged the Judge to pardon him, as he worked for his living. He was a poi merchant.

A third had come from Hilo to draw a deposit of money from the Government, but was run into jail by the police. Asked if he did not know gambling was going on at the place, he said he did not.

The others had nothing to say, being ready to take their medicine. Mr. Dickey, being asked if he had anything to say for his clients, pleaded for leniency. The men had not been charged with gambling themselves and their presence at a game was a minor offense.

Judge Gear asked him if, as district magistrate, he had not always sent offenders of this class to prison for at least thirty days.

Mr. Dickey said not for presence at gambling. He sent gamblers to prison, as he considered gambling a lazy man's vice and the best thing for those guilty of the offense was to give them compulsory work.

The court then proceeded with the

THE TRUTH ALWAYS.

"When you are in doubt tell the truth." It was an experienced old diplomat who said this to a beginner in the work. It may pass in some things, but not in business. Fraud and deception are often profitable so long as concealed; yet detection is certain sooner or later; then comes the smash-up and the punishment. The best and safest way is to tell the truth all the time. Thus you make friends that stick by you, and a reputation that is always worth twenty shillings to the pound everywhere your goods are offered for sale. We are able modestly to affirm, that it is on this basis that the world-wide popularity of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION rests. The people have discovered that this medicine is exactly what it is said to be, and that it does what we have always declared it will do. Its nature also has been frankly made known. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. A combination of supreme excellence and medicinal merit. Nothing has been so successful in Anemia, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Influenza, Loss of Flesh and Wasting Diseases, Weakness and Low Nervous Tone, and all complaints caused by Impure Blood. Dr. Austin D. Irvine, of Canada, says: "I have used it in cases where cod liver oil was indicated but could not be taken by the patient, and the results following were very gratifying." It cannot deceive or disappoint you, is effective from the first dose and comes to the rescue of those who have received no benefit from any other treatment. It represents the dawn of progress. Sold by all chemists everywhere.

THE PRINCE GOES AWAY

Another Big Concourse When the Manchuria Departed.

Prince Fushimi's departure in the steamer Manchuria for San Francisco yesterday was marked by a popular demonstration at the Hackfeld wharf, only second in proportions to the great ovation that welcomed his arrival from Japan the previous day. While all nationalities were represented, most conspicuous were the Japanese and of these the school children.

After a night's rest at the Alexander Young hotel the Prince and his suite were up at 7 o'clock and had breakfast an hour later. Shortly after 9 o'clock they drove to the Japanese Consulate, to take leave of Consul General and Mrs. Miki Saito, and a reception was held there from 10 until nearly 11 o'clock. Then the Imperial party was escorted in carriages by the Consul General with his staff and the Japanese reception committee to the wharf. After boarding the steamer Prince Fushimi held a final reception, in the course of which his health and that of the Emperor were honored in bumper of champagne.

Up to the moment the gangway was lowered, Prince Fushimi was waited on by the National Guard of Hawaii's escort of officers—Major Wall, Captain Johnson and Lieutenant Cummins. The consular officials were in full uniform.

As the mighty steamship moved away from the wharf, Prince Fushimi and suite stood on the bridge. The children sang Japanese war songs for some minutes before the vessel moved out, the Prince bowing his acknowledgments to the youngsters.

Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson, the consular party and the committee, aboard the tug Fearless with the band, escorted the Manchuria out to sea.

Prince Fushimi may be expected to pass through Honolulu on his return home in the steamship Manchuria the early part of January. He had his photograph taken at the Consulate yesterday, surrounded by his suite, the Consulate people and the committee.

 sentences. All of the defendants had appealed from $10 fines in the district court, but had to take the grand jury indictment route.

THE SENTENCES.

Ah Chew, owner of the "Kitty" in the game, was sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment at hard labor.

Ah Quan, Ah Lin and Wong Ping, who had been in jail awaiting trial for thirty days, were sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for 24 hours.

Ah San, Ah Choon, Ah Tai, Ah Mo, Ah Hin, Quai Mai and Ah Lee were told by the court that they were fortunate in having been out on bail, also in not having gone on the stand and perjured themselves. They were sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for 15 days.

TRIAL FOR RIOT.

Chun Lun, Akin, Ng In and Sam Yau were next put on trial for riot. Prosser for the Territory, Douthitt for defendants. After the following jury were found satisfactory and sworn to try the case the trial was continued until this morning: John H. Craig, H. L. Fletcher, Jas. Brown, E. J. Stone, E. Berner, C. J. Ludwigsen, J. F. Soper, W. C. Wilder, A. Nelson, W. M. Campbell, F. E. Blake and H. A. Parmelee.

HABEAS CORPUS.

Ah Young, who was convicted in the Police Court of violating the lodging house law, was discharged by Judge Gear in an oral decision yesterday, under a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Gear had previously, in the case of Frank Luczewko, declared the law to be unconstitutional. The statute requires a certificate by an agent of the Board of Health, setting forth that the premises are in good sanitary condition, before a license is granted for a lodging house or restaurant.

JUDGMENT AGAINST WINAM. In the case of the Oriental Life Insurance Company, Ltd., vs. C. Winam, defendant, and Bishop & Co. and Bank of Hawaii, Ltd., garnishees, tried without a jury, Judge De Bolt yesterday awarded judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $2000 with interest at 9 per cent from Nov. 1, 1902, to date, attorney's fee and costs. C. W. Ashford for the defendant gave notice of motion for a new trial. Castle & Withington and W. L. Whitney appeared for plaintiff. In the course of the final hearing the Bank of Hawaii, garnishee, was discharged. The suit was on a promissory note.

ANSWER OF SURETY.

Cecil Brown, one of the sureties, has filed an answer to the complaint of C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works, in the suit on the bond of Edward Vivian Richardson, former clerk of Honolulu Water Works. He denies that James H. Boyd, the Superintendent of Public Works on July 1, 1901, had lawful power to appoint a clerk in the Bureau of Water Works. For certain matters alleged he leaves plaintiff to his proofs and concludes with an allegation that when the bond was executed the defendant Richardson was a minor under the age of 21 years.

ACCOUNT OF TRUSTEE.

The account of the trustee of the estate of Eliza Luce, deceased, has been filed, showing receipts of $898.92 and payments of $78.50, leaving a balance of $820.40. One of the beneficiaries under the will, Jean J. Fenard, having come of age the trustee petitions for discharge as to such person. S. M. Damon makes the report as guardian of the trustee, who had become incapacitated.

COULD NOT SAVE HER

THREE PHYSICIANS TRIED FOR FOUR YEARS IN VAIN.

A Woman's Almost Miraculous Recovery From a Wasting Disease Brings Hope to the Hopeless.

For four years Mrs. Clara O. Smith, of No. 56 Bowers street, Nashua, N. H., had been growing paler and thinner and, according to the verdict of her doctors, had but a few weeks of life left. Then an astonishing transformation occurred and the woman, who had been so weak that she could not cross the floor, dismissed her nurse, resumed her household work, and gradually took on flesh until she reached a weight of 188 pounds. To a reporter who visited her home to learn the circumstances, Mrs. Smith gave the following details:

"My troubles began nearly four years ago with hemorrhages of the bowels. Week in and week out these were repeated and there seemed no way of stopping them. I became white as snow. My heart beat so that I could not go up stairs, and later not even the length of the floor. My head kept throbbing all the time just below my ears, and my limbs swelled and would hardly carry my body. Finally I became so weak that I had to lie down all the time.

"My physicians regarded my case as incurable. I was told that there was no possible chance for me and even that I could not last for more than a few weeks. It was then in October of last year, that my son-in-law saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got some for me. They brought me the first relief I had experienced in all my sickness. I could see a change for the better within the first week after I began to use them. The pain in my head stopped almost at once and my strength began to come back, my lips and cheeks grew red again, my flesh was restored; in fact I am now entirely well and able to do the work of a family of three. The change is all due to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I know that I cannot be too grateful."

In all cases of weakness caused by lack of blood, and for all diseases springing from a perverted condition of the blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the great remedy. Their effect is simply wonderful. They are sold by all druggists throughout the world.

BAREFOOT BILL'S CASE GOES UP

Barefoot Bill will have his case tried in the Circuit Court. The police have a very complete case of circumstantial evidence against him. Charlie Chillingworth conducted the preliminary defense in District Court and managed to have the evidence regarding the cap found in Lewers & Cooke's thrown out.

During the afternoon a couple of drunks were arrested, and one man, Wm. Anderson, for vagrancy. Sheriff Henry says that he has been agreeably surprised over the remarkable sobriety shown by the Japanese during the stay of the Prince and the Emperor's birthday. Only one Jap has been arrested for drunkenness during the last two days.
